Headline:
Sunny spells mixed with heavy showers, possibly thundery.

Today:
Sunday will see sunny spells throughout the day. While the morning will be mostly dry, heavy showers, potentially thundery, will start building up from late morning. Scattered at first, they may become widespread by the end of the day. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
A wet evening with showers merging into longer spells of rain and clearing northwards with drier conditions developing behind. Staying cloudy overnight with further spells of rain. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Monday:
A cloudy and showery start with the odd heavier burst of rain possible during the morning. A sunnier afternoon with showers gradually petering out. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Tuesday, heavy rain likely and turning breezy later. Cloudy with rain or showers on Wednesday. Much drier on Thursday with some sunny spells and a few light showers.
